*You turn man to destruction, And say, "Return, O children of men."
For a thousand years in Your sight Are like yesterday when it is past,

They are like a sleep. In the morning they are like grass which grows up:
In the morning it flourishes and grows up; In the evening it is cut down and withers.*

- Humility acknowledges the ⁽¹⁸⁴⁾ _____ of God

*For we have been consumed by Your anger, And by Your wrath we are terrified.
You have set our iniquities before You, Our secret sins in the light of Your countenance.
For all our days have passed away in Your wrath; We finish our years like a sigh.
The days of our lives are seventy years; And if by reason of strength they are eighty years,
Yet their boast is only labor and sorrow; For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.
Who knows the power of Your anger? For as the fear of You, so is Your wrath.*

Leaving a legacy is a deep-seated desire of every human being. We all want to make a difference. We all want our lives to matter. The key to leaving a legacy is to recognize that we must become biblical stewards of our entire life, not just our finances. We need to grow and develop each of the core parts of our life. Our life plan should address not only our spiritual life, but our physical life, our professional life, our personal life, our relational life, and our financial life. We need to Create a Radical Life Plan.

PRAY FOR BROKENNESS

Father, forgive me of my sin of pride. Cleanse me of thinking I'm not broken.

Jesus, You taught me that the poor in spirit, those who are broken, those who recognize their spiritual poverty are blessed.

Holy Spirit, teach me to seek first the Kingdom. Teach me how to be truly humble, and not have false humility. I recognize my desperate need for You to fill me and direct my every step. I release and renounce all pride and seek Your amazing grace.

In Jesus' Name.
